

Role of thanks

Windmill Hill City Farm wishes to thank the following people for making a valued contribution to the Big Lottery Community Spaces Groundwork Project:

Anthony Mortimer - Project Garden Designer

WHCF Farm and Garden Volunteers, Community Volunteers, and Open Planting Days

Belinda Sully - Garden volunteer recruitment
Beth Yarsley - Volunteer Coordinator, WHCF

Federation of City Farms and Community Gardens

University of the West of England - garden volunteers

Caravan and Camping Club, Bristol District - volunteer gardening

Laura Demery – website

The Woodcraft Folk - design of totem poles

St Mary Redcliffe Primary – consultation

Rob Williams - Project Lead Professional

Rod Noble, Cemex - donating giant bolders

Helen Bentley-Fox, Woodwise Recycling - donation of woodchips

Community Payback Team, WHCF - clearance and installation work
Community Payback team, SS Great Britain - carving wooden animals

Joe McKenna, CSV Environment - Volunteer Supervisor

Anthony Rogers, Wood Sculptor - picnic furniture designer

The Green Woodwork Group - carving totem poles
Wayne Smith, Woodwork Tutor - totem poles
Gareth Pitt, Artist, BV Studios - totem poles painting
Community Volunteers - totem open painting day
Mark Tait and Clare Light - totem installation

CommunitySpaces

LOTTERY FUNDED

