

Outdoor Learning Volunteer

Role Title	Outdoor Learning Volunteer
Where/Project/Team	Outdoor Learning Team
When does it start	ASAP
Commitment(Days and Times)	Be available for ad-hoc children's activities depending on your availability and school bookings.
Purpose of the role	Windmill Hill City Farm runs a series of children's activities and events, including sessions for children to experience farming and nature in the heart of the city. Activities include animal care, growing vegetables, cooking, mud kitchen, nature play, pond dipping, bug hunting, music, and art. We are looking for a volunteer to assist experienced outdoor education specialists with a range of sessions for different age groups. This role will help develop and support children and families projects on the Farm.
Main activities/ tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To work cooperatively alongside staff to deliver children's sessions and engage with children in outdoor activities. • To support the session leaders to set up the session, organise breaks and pack up the session. • To provide a positive role model for engaging children.
Working with	Julie Thorpe (Outdoor Learning Manager)
Support and training	We will offer you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Initial induction • Regular supervision, support and training where appropriate to develop your own skills base in the areas you would like to focus on. • Volunteer meetings with the opportunity to socialise with fellow volunteers and discuss project development The role will provide you with the opportunity to give something to

	the community and develop the valuable work of the Farm.
Desirable Skills, Experience and Qualities You Need	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Good communication skills and a friendly and inclusive approach• Experience of working with children/families using a play led- approach• Interest in outdoor education• A flexible and adaptable approach, being prepared to be outside in all weather This is an ideal role for someone who is happy to support children's sessions on an ad-hoc basis and would like to increase their experience and knowledge of engaging children in outdoor activity.
For more information, contact:	Lizzie Spencer Health and Social Care Manager lizzie.spencer@windmillhillcityfarm.org.uk 0117 947 1194